

18th Annual International Conference

„Perspectives of Banking and Financial Law”

”The impact of AI on European Banking and Financial Sector”

INVITATION

Date: May 16th, 2025, hour: 9:00 AM.

Place: Aula Manga – Bucharest University of Economic Studies

The Faculty of Law of the Bucharest University of Economic Studies together with the European Society of Banking and Financial Law - Romania, the Association of Legal Counselors from the Banking and Financial System, the Romanian Banking Association and the Romanian Society of Business Law, with the participation of representatives of the main professional organizations in the field and Romanian officials, organize the 18th Annual International Conference „Perspectives in Banking and Financial Law”.

This year’s conference is focused on: ”The impact of AI on European Banking and Financial Sector”.

The event offers the opportunity to all those interested in the field of banking, financial law and new technology (FinTech) to discuss and debate ideas and visions regarding technological evolution and its impact on the banking and financial regulations as well as the ways of managing the current challenges in the banking environment.

The event will be attended by representatives of the main professional organizations in the field and Romanian officials from the public system and The National Bank of Romania, alongside practitioners, researchers and academics from country and abroad, interested in banking, financial and FinTech law.

We hope to see you at this event.

Yours sincerely,

Lecturer PhD. Dragos Mihail Manescu
Vice-Dean